

BC COUNCIL OF GARDEN CLUBS HORTICULTURAL JUDGES TRAINING

CINDY TATRYN, CANADIAN WESTERN ASSOCIATION OF FLORAL ART CLUBS

Follow your passion to become a horticultural judge.

More horticultural judges are needed!

I am starting a new horticultural judging course in the spring and you are invited!

The theory portion of the course can be done at home. It consists of reading the BC Council of Garden Clubs Horticultural Judging and Exhibiting Standards Manual and completing 18 assignments over the first year.

I will email you the assignments, which you will complete and email back to me to be marked. You are required to get 75% on all assignments and the final exam.

In the second year, the in-person portion of the course involves:

- Five (5) observe judging with a qualified BCCGC Horticultural Judge at public shows (not club meetings).
- Five (5) co-judging with a qualified BCCGC Horticultural Judge at public shows (not club meetings).
- Entering ten (10) horticultural exhibits in public shows (not club meetings).
- Receiving three (3) first-place ribbons for horticultural exhibits in public shows (not club meetings).

The BCCGC Horticultural Judging and Exhibiting Standards Manual costs $25.00 plus postage.

If you are interested, please contact me immediately with your name, mailing address, and email address so I can register you. Fill out the 'Order Form' and return to me.

Thank you
